

first aid procedures;
prescriptive medications and doctors orders for care;
specialized nursing services;
evidence based practice and continuous quality improvement;
normal health and development as related to pediatric/adolescents; administration of medications, side effects, indicators and contra-indicators; causes and methods of control of various communicable diseases;
immunization and blood borne pathogen procedures and regulations;
principles and procedures of record-

